AROOSTOOK INVADED

But by Friends and Well Wishers, Not Foes.

Unbounded Hospitality for the Visitors Within Their Gates.

The Excursion of the Bangor Board of Trade and Their Guests.

[Special Despatch to Whig and Courier.]

PRESQUE ISLE, Sept. 25. The Board of Trade special furnished by the courtesy of the Bangor & Aroostook Railway Company with 185 passengers in charge of Conductor Haggerty arrived at Houlton at 12.30 P. M. after a magnificent run. General Manager Cram was on board and under his watchful eye everything ran like clock work. The train made a short stop at North Twin Dam which was improved by the passengers in visiting the dam and Gerrish's camp.

When the train pulled into Houlton the citizens of that town lined the platform while the square was filled with teams to take the visitors up town.

A procession was formed of teams and Governor Cleaves was escorted by the Houlton Band and Company L of the militia, to the residence of Hon. L. Powers, where the governor was entertained.

The remainder of the party had dinner at the Snell House and Exchange Hotel. After dinner carriages were provided and the visitors were taken for a delightful drive about town. The fine business blocks and beautiful residences were objects of much admiration. As evidence of the business of the town the WHIG correspondent counted fifty-two double teams loaded with potatoes standing in line waiting for a chance to unload at the starch factory.

At 4.30 the special left for this town, which was reached at about six. Here again was manifested the generous hospitality of Aroostook. Houses were thrown wide open and every member of the large party was provided with comfortable quarters for the night.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the Opera House. Dr. Freeman, president of the local Board of Trade, presided. Hon. C. F. Daggett, member of the Governor's council, in a happy speech extended a welcome to the visitors and for the citizens. Gov. Cleaves was given a rousing reception. He paid a handsome tribute to Manager Cram and called for three cheers for the man who has done so much for the development of eastern Maine, which were given with a will that nearly lifted the roof.

President Lord spoke for the State Board of Trade and President Pearl for the Bangor Board, both expressing their gratification at the magnificent evidences of enterprise manifested on every hand in this county.

Remarks were then made by Judge Robinson, Hon. Charles L. Adams, president of the Massachusetts State Board of Trade; Hon. L. Powers, Hon. William T. Haines and President Winslow, of the Portland Board of Trade.

To-morrow morning the visitors will be driven about the town and the special will leave for Fort Fairfield at 9.30. Every one is enthusiastic over the railroad and with one voice pronounce it the best new road in the country.

What

You want of a medicine is that it shall do you good—purify and enrich your blood, throw off that tired feeling, and give you health, strength, courage and ambition.

Hood's

Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye today, and it meets these requirements perfectly. This is proved by the testimony of thousands of people. Hood's

Sarsaparilla

Builds up the nerves by feeding them on pure blood, creates an appetite by toning the digestive organs, overcomes That Tired Feeling by giving vitality to the blood, and gives sweet refreshing sleep. You may realize that Hood's Sarsaparilla this by giving it a fair trial. Insist upon Hood's and only Hood's. $1; six for $5.

Does

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

About a week ago Mrs. Fair, driven to desperation because of his brutal treatment, left her husband and went to live with her sister. Last evening she returned to the rooms to get some clothing. Nothing more was seen or heard of her until this morning when the dead bodies of man and wife were found in a pool of blood.

The Elephant's Mud Bath.

Animals when wild constantly die a lingering death from injury to the skin, whether caused, as usually happens in tropical countries, by wounds aggravated by insects or by cutaneous disease. Hence the pains which they take in making their toilet and in the use and selection of "cosmetics." Among birds the salt water species often soak fresh water to wash in, different land birds choose different earths in which to dust, and also wash in water, and nearly every tropical animal, including the tiger, bathes either in water or in mud. Perhaps the best known mud bathers are the wild boar, the water buffalo and the elephant. The latter has an immense advantage over all other animals in the use of its trunk for dressing wounds. It is at once a syringe, a powdering puff and a hand.

Water, mud and dust are the main "applications" used, though it sometimes covers a sun scorched back with grass or leaves. "Wounded elephants," writes Sir Samuel Baker, "have a marvelous power of recovery when in their wild state, although they have no gifts of surgical knowledge, their simple system being confined to plastering their wounds with mud or blowing dust upon the surface. Dust and mud comprise the entire pharmacopoeia of the elephant, and this is applied upon the most trivial occasions, as well as upon the most serious occasions. * * * I have seen them, when in a tank, plaster up a bullet wound with mud taken from the bottom."—London Spectator.

A facetious Lewiston gentleman, who is somewhat conversant with sporting matters at Old Orchard, suggests that, as a sure thing to break the present protracted drouth, some one advertise a race at the Kite track.

A Lewiston locomotive engineer is high in his praise of the manner in which the excursion of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to Bar Harbor was conducted Sunday. The Company's boat there took them on a twenty-five mile sail. On their way back the running time from Bangor to Lewiston was two hours and seventeen minutes and some of the miles were made in fifty-one seconds.

Aroostook.

The closing of Aroostook starch factories from lack of water to run them, coming in connection with the low prices and the potato rot, is surely discouraging. But fall rains can't delay their appearance much longer, unless this is an exceptional fall.

Persons contemplating setting brush fires may find it profitable to consider the case just decided in the Aroostook Supreme Judicial Court, and then make sure that they have plenty of help to control the blaze before striking the match. That fire at Bridgewater Center a year ago last May is likely to prove an expensive job for Mr. Collins, whether the law court sustains his exceptions or not. The verdict against the defendant, as seen in our court report, was for $3,175.

Three Portland men recently made the trip from Portland to Augusta and return in a rowboat, sleeping aboard. They were Samuel D. Rummery, his son Herold, and Eben R. York.

Hancock.

The hot spell has brought money to Bar Harbor by delaying the return citywards of many cottagers, who were lucky enough to have tarried by the sea until now. And some people recalling the fact that on Oct. 4, 1891, the thermometer stood 96° in the shade, are wondering if the summer is over even yet.

Knox.

A report from Vinalhaven tells of a queer happening in that town. A short time ago Mrs. Fred Snow had an unusually vivid dream in which it appeared to her that there was a large sum of money secreted about the house. The idea seemed so improbable that beyond passing the story around among her neighbors, nothing was ever done about it. Recently her husband decided that repairs and improvements would have to be made about the homestead before winter set in, and work consequently began a few days ago. Monday while removing a portion of one of the walls which had begun to fall away, one of the workmen struck a hammer against something solid which fell out on to the floor with a metallic sound. The astonished carpenter found it to be quite a large bag which, upon being untied, revealed a quantity of silver coins. Without stopping to count them he called Mrs. Snow, who suggested that they look to see if there were more. The search resulted in bringing to light two similar bags, each of which contained about a quart of coins. Some bore as recent a date as 1850, and the majority is older, but there is absolutely no clue to how they came there. It is understood that the three bags contained upwards of $1,000. The money, of course, falls to the fortunate owner of the house.

One of the men on whom the country has its gaze fixed to-day, is the venerable Alpheus Felch, the sixth of the thirty governors of Michigan, whose 91st birthday anniversary, the whole people of that State are to unite in celebrating this month. Born in the autumn of 1805, the life of this honored man has been filled with incidents and events, the relation of which would read like a romance. Mr. Felch first saw the light of day in the little town of Limerick, Me., where his father was engaged in a mercantile business. Mr. Felch received his early education in the common schools of his native town, and in 1821 became a student in the old Fryeburg Academy. Upon leaving college he began the study of law, and in 1830 was admitted to practice in Bangor. The present position of Governor Felch is unique. He is the oldest surviving member of the Michigan Legislature; the oldest and only surviving bank commissioner of the State; the oldest surviving Governor of the State; the oldest surviving Judge of the Supreme Court, and with but one exception the oldest surviving member of the United States Senate. The people of Michigan have bestowed upon Governor Felch every honor within their gift, and now, as he has well entered his nineties, he has the satisfaction of knowing that he is looked upon by all with reverence, respect and love.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

An Absolute Cure for the Worst Cases of Rheumatism.

The Plain Language of Mr. Oscar Pike—The Greatest of all Remedies Accomplished His Cure After Many Months of Weakness and Suffering—No Tedious Waiting for Improvement.

Paine's celery compound is the one known specific for the cure of rheumatism.

And it does not need a tedious trial to prove it.

The effect of this best of remedies is straightway felt.

Not a week goes by before the pains of rheumatism diminish.

Thousands of men and women have told of the days and nights of pain and feebleness exchanged in a few weeks for activity and strength.

Paine's celery compound has won the reputation of being the remedy "that makes people well." Its good works extend from Oregon to Maine. In every state in the Union there has been piled up in the newspapers and medical journals, a tremendous amount of indisputable evidence of the curative power of Paine's celery compound over all forms of nervous debility and diseases of the blood. It cures after nature's plan, by affording nutrition for every part of the body overhauling the worn-out tissues, and supplying new brain and nerve material, sending pure blood through the veins, invigorating the whole system, and removing the cause of disease.

Mr. Oscar Pike, a well-known resident of Princeton, Maine, recently sent the following unsolicited letter to the proprietors of this wonderful remedy:

"Two years ago I was taken sick with what the doctors called the grip. I was improving when I took on a violent cold and chill. Then rheumatism set in, first in the joints of my shoulders, then down my hands and arms, then all over. Feet, hands and legs swelled. I could not put my hand to my head; could not throw the clothes off me; could not dress or undress myself, nor get out of my chair without help. For a year and a half I tried all kinds of medicines and sarsaparillas, with little or no relief. I was 73 years old. Some one told me to try Paine's celery compound. After I had taken three bottles I found a marked improvement. I have now taken twelve bottles, and the result is I eat and sleep well, do my own work, and go about as usual, getting in and out of my carriage without help. I have been tempted to put an article in the local paper for the benefit of those that are afflicted as I have been."

Mr. Pike is well known in his locality. He is the founder and president of the North Washington Agricultural Society and Trotting Association. When he goes for his mail, he says, people ask him what he has been doing that he is improving so of late, and he answers as do thousands of others throughout the country—

"Paine's celery compound has made me well!"

Why The Danger is Removed

There appears to be no danger whatever that any free silver bill can pass the next House of Representatives.—New York World.

Our New York contemporary claims [illegible] enterprising newspaper and yet [illegible] discovered what was settled [illegible] a year ago. The danger of the passage of a free coinage measure was [illegible] by the people in the last election when they turned out a Democratic majority in the House and substituted a Republican majority. A canvass of the new members was made sometime ago [illegible] the fact that of 244 Republicans [illegible] were opposed to free coinage, while the Democrats were largely in favor of silver. In view of the conditions [illegible] less there are Democrats who will [illegible] from proclaiming their silver [illegible] knowing that they are powerless to accomplish anything but it is [illegible] sentiment of the Republican party that enables the World to congratulate the country on its escape from free silver legislation although it carefully refrains from stating this truth.

Will Help Its Friends.

[illegible] scandal in connection with the [illegible] of the existing tariff law under [illegible] of the Sugar Trust is [illegible] public mind. It was a [illegible] of dicker and in return for the [illegible] of dollars placed from the [illegible] of the people by the grace of [illegible] Trust now [illegible] friend in the [illegible] The Washington correspondent of the New York Press writes [illegible] that the Sugar Trust [illegible] Senator Gorman in Maryland and Senator Brice in Ohio [illegible] would require this of [illegible] but such concerns are not [illegible] Senator Gorman's [illegible] differs from all others [illegible] he has been engaged. He [illegible] politics is out on [illegible] his Democratic and [illegible] tory [illegible] tonight on hand [illegible] for more existence [illegible] Senate is the [illegible] campaign. He [illegible] at the head [illegible] Democratic ticket because he be[illegible] to better advantage [illegible] than with any other candidate [illegible] Brice [illegible] all the help he [illegible] to the [illegible] of the [illegible]

[illegible] two political magicians know, [illegible] what [illegible] when a [illegible] supply of money is needed. By [illegible] can they win [illegible] reputation as a [illegible] contest he is now engaged [illegible] it will not affect his seat [illegible] his term does not expire [illegible] March 18[illegible] but if Gorman wins [illegible] the hope of [illegible] nomination.

[illegible] blood Svengali of Ohio [illegible] would [illegible] recently acquired wealth to be [illegible] Democratic candidate. He is shrewd [illegible] under a profession [illegible] for Campbell's candidacy [illegible] it will be seen that [illegible] Ohio and Maryland [illegible] appear on the surface.

[illegible] Gorman and Brice fought day [illegible] Senate that the Sugar [illegible] which elected Cleveland [illegible] United States might be [illegible] secure [illegible] per cent ad [illegible] duty on raw sugar. Then they [illegible] the differential for the [illegible] duty against [illegible] bounty paying countries.

[illegible] Trust got everything it [illegible] but [illegible] the programme was [illegible] Gorman was forced [illegible] of the campaign [illegible] put Cleveland in the White House [illegible] who received [illegible] for his trip on to the [illegible] helped to seat him [illegible] White House. While Cleveland [illegible] celebrated letter charged Gorman [illegible] and their followers in the [illegible] with being guilty of party perfidy and party dishonor much of his [illegible] against the protective [illegible] which Gorman was adding [illegible]

[illegible] was the determination [illegible] acknowledge his obligations to the Sugar Trust whatever promises had [illegible] to it by Gorman. It was too [illegible] to Cleveland to admit by [illegible] the Trust that he was elected by [illegible] agency than that of Divine [illegible] and a superior order, of [illegible] of course being [illegible] the machinery of the Solid South.

[illegible] Gorman and Brice had their way. The Republican Senators at every [illegible] of the proceedings called the attention of the country to the fact that, when the McKinley law had made sugar free for the poor man's breakfast table, the Democrats proposed to levy a tax [illegible] burdensome and iniquitous in order to pay its election debts. The Sugar Trust promptly availed itself of this greatest opportunity to make money [illegible] to a combination of monopo[illegible] The only approach to it in an unparalleled opportunity to plunder the Government and the people was the [illegible] syndicate operation, which the President himself committed the country to.

During all the discussion of the sugar schedule in the Senate and in the wrangling backward and forward between the two houses the Trust's agents bought sugar in every part of the world and brought it to the United States free of duty. They were confident of the power of Gorman and Brice to deliver the goods they had promised or to defeat all tariff legislation. The result was that when the Wilson-Gorman tariff law went into effect the Trust had such a vast supply of sugar on hand that even yet the revenue which was promised from that source has not materialized. The Trust benefited by the amount of the differential and discriminating duties.

Now it is Gorman's turn, and Brice's also, to remind the Sugar Trust of the friendship extended toward it in its hour of greatest danger and to test the sense as well as the wealth of their old political partners. From the best of information it seems that the trust has responded promptly in both States and will continue to do so until the day of election.

Gorman will have all the money he wants, and Brice can combine his railroad influences with his Sugar Trust campaign funds to secure his own election and create two Ohio Democratic possibilities for the Presidency—himself first and Campbell second. There is no reason why the Sugar Trust should not provide the sinews of war in Maryland and Ohio to aid their friends, Gorman and Brice. It would be just as unreasonable to suppose that the bond syndicate would not help its friend Cleveland to a third term if it thought that by such a deal it could continue to hold the credit of the United States in pawn for a ransom of added millions.

Cause and Effect

Cleveland's Controller of the Treasury, in speaking of some of the causes of the gold shipment says "Generally speaking, these gold shipments come about from the fact that the American people are buying a great deal abroad and are not selling sufficient of their own products to equalize things, thus necessitating a settlement of the balance due in gold."

Controller Eckles does not tell us why the American people are buying a great deal of foreign products. If he went into that question he might run up against the 'tariff for revenue legislation,' which it is the duty of every good office holder under the Cleveland Administration to defend through thick and thin.

It is only in unguarded moments that that legislation is indirectly blamed by "tariff reformers" for the financial muddle in which the country is just now floundering. As the excess of imports over exports must be paid either in American securities or gold, and as American securities just now are not in demand across the Atlantic, it follows that the yellow metal must be shipped abroad to liquidate obligations which need not exist if it were not for the unnecessary importation of foreign manufactures. It is well to keep this fact in mind.

The Administration has already added three hundred millions to the public debt in its attempt to keep up the gold reserve and will probably add several more millions before long, because, as Controller Eckels tell us, "the American people are buying a great deal abroad and are not selling of their products to equalize things." In substantiation of this statement we have only to refer to the statistics of our imports and exports during the year 1895, as compared with those of 1894. Here they are:

IMPORTS FROM ABROAD.

1894	[illegible]
Increase 1895	$[illegible]

EXPORTS TO EUROPE.

1894	$[illegible]
1895	[illegible]
Decrease 1895	$[illegible],895,689

These figures show that during the last year we sold to Europe in round numbers $72,000,000 less than in the previous year, and that we spent more than $88,000,000 upon European manufactures of various kinds. These figures tell their own story.

RESCUED FROM TORMENT.

Every Joint in His Body Racked by Rheumatism.

Could Not Move His Arm And Was in Constant Pain—A True Story of a Remarkable Cure.

William F Maier, 18 Park Place, Zanesville, O., says: "About a year ago I had to quit work on account of rheumatism. I had the disease in my hips, back and arms, in fact, in every joint in my body. The pain was intense, and I suffered the most excruciating agony. My doctor could not do anything for me, and I tried every remedy that could be suggested, none of them did me any good, and finally my joints became stiffened and sore. At times I could not move my right arm, and was in constant pain. I procured a bottle of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure, and within a short time was completely cured. I am free from stiffness and pain, and can cheerfully recommend Munyon's Remedy as the best I have ever known."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure acts almost instantaneously, curing many obstinate cases in a few hours. It is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, side, back or breast, or soreness of any part of the body in from one to three hours. It promptly cures lameness, stiff and swollen joints and all pains in the hips and loins, chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, or pain in the back are speedily cured. It seldom fails to give relief after one or two doses, and almost invariably cures before one bottle has been used.

Munyon's Homœopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. is on every wrapper.

HARVARD GRADUATES

Make a Visit to Yale to Show Cordiality

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 2[illegible] The visit of several Harvard graduates here yesterday has been commented upon widely on the Yale campus. It was at first thought that the visit had a [illegible] in [illegible] Harvard [illegible] in an effort to arrange a Yale-Harvard foot ball game this fall, but the Yale athletic captains state that the report is wholly untrue and the visit was intended to show the cordiality of feeling for the Yale and Cambridge track teams, both of whom will be the guests of the Harvard club at New York next Monday.

STATEMENT DENIED

That Bernard Wifers will Enter Yale

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 25. The statement that Bernard J. Wifers, the New York Athletic Club sprinter who broke the world's record at New York last Saturday, is to enter Yale this fall is denied by the Yale track team management. Wifers is now here taking his examinations and cannot enter unless he goes into one of the professional schools, and this would bar him from the Yale athletic team for a year.

SCH. ABBIE E. WILLARD,

Of Bangor, Run Into by an Unknown Schooner

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 25. Last night schooner Abbie E. Willard, of Bangor, Me., made this port and anchored off Fort Adams. This afternoon Master Joseph H. Atwood entered a protest in which he states that Tuesday afternoon about two o'clock, while off the south coast of Watch Hill, he was run into by an unknown schooner which, like his own vessel, was considerably injured. He says he was on the starboard tack and close hauled. His vessel lost her bowsprit and fore rigging. A hole was stove in her port bow, her windlass cut was broken, and other damage done. He expects to make temporary repairs here and return to Bangor. The schooner is probably the one which the Ernest T. Lee encountered before putting into New London in a crippled condition.

A Counterfeiter Punished

The Carter Medicine Company has been engaged for the last month in running down a gang in New York who have been making and selling a counterfeit of its trademark, "Carter's Little Liver Pills" Notices have appeared of several arrests which the company has made For a week one of these cases was on trial in the Court of Special Sessions before Justices Jerome, Jacob and Hayes The prisoner was Thomas L Hughes, a druggist at No 281 Tenth avenue The prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary In delivering the sentence of the court Presiding Justice Jerome said

"Hughes, the Court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man The whole value of many of these articles lies in the trademark Thousands and hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent annually in placing them before the public If the public cannot rely upon these articles, then a fraud is being practiced upon them, and upon the proprietary rights of those persons who own trademarks New York is a great commercial city and trademarks are as important to this city as integrity is to a coiner This is a class of cases which this Court does not look upon with any leniency at all The sentence of the Court is that you be confined in the penitentiary for a term of three months"

The Justice also intimated that but for the prisoner's previous record and the fact that he had been in jail for some time the sentence would have been much heavier

SYRACUSE CONVENTION.

Ex-Governor Flower Makes a Lengthy Speech.

The Platform Adopted—Weary Looking Crowd that Filled Lobbies.

Syracuse, N Y, Sept. 25—Matters were in a chaotic condition this morning when the Democratic statesmen got out of bed Many of them had been up nearly all night wrestling with the excise and Sunday law plank or with the contest of the Grace-Fairchild men.

It was therefore a weary looking crowd that filled the hotel lobbies and hustled for seats in the dining rooms at breakfast hour

The Tammany men and the Grace Fairchild Democrats from New York city had a bad night of it. They fought their fight before the committee on contested seats until after midnight and then when the committee verdict was learned both were dissatisfied Of the two the contestants were the most put out, although they had won a victory

Instead of being thrown out bodily as they were last year, they had been accorded one fifth of the New York city seats. It is true the resolution adopted by the committee for presentation to the convention did not uphold their claims to regularity and was worded carefully to prevent its being used as a precedent and the small recognition made was stated to be for the sake of harmony and not because it was just.

However the state Democracy had gained something and it was thought they would be satisfied, but all their talk early this morning was about packing their grips and going home They called a caucus to meet at the Vanderbilt Hotel at nine o clock to decide whether to stay out of the convention unless one third representation is granted

Convention Hall began to fill up shortly before 10 At the hour set for business all the spectators seats were taken and most of the delegates were in their places The band in the gallery had things all their own way for half an hour At 10 30 there was over 2000 people in the hall

Ex-Governor Flower having been chosen to preside spoke as follows —

Ex-Governor Flower's Speech

Mr Flower said he counted himself out of politics but he was too earnest a Democrat to refuse the call of his party if it needed his services on such an occasion as this and I felt proud of being asked to preside over the deliberations of a convention whose action will be believed to reflect the judgment and opinions of a majority of the voters in the Empire state at the next election

I do not stand here said Mr Flower in the perfunctory manner of partisans on such an occasion as this to denounce the other party and to praise my own I am merely stating what every intelligent voter in the state knows to be true and what every independent voter will tell you namely that the people who last November under the impulse of an earnest moral sentiment whether justly or unjustly aroused placed the Republican party in power to accomplish desired reforms have been woefully disappointed and shamefully betrayed and while such a political betrayal is always to be deplored whether it brings advantages to party adversaries or not it is I am sure a source of satisfaction to Democrats who felt the injustice of the position in which a combination of circumstances had placed their party last autumn to realize that their partisan opponents who misled and deceived public opinion for their own selfish purposes are now completely unmasked

It is easier now than it was in the heat of public excitement a year ago to assert the proposition which is absolutely true that the exposure of corruption in the police department of New York which were unjustly used against the Democratic party at the election were more chargeable to the Republican party than to our own

The laws which permitted corruption were of Republican origin the system which encouraged it was distinctively Republican the officers who connived at it were mostly Republicans and after the exposures were made the public sentiment properly revolted both against them and the bipartisan system which was responsible for them

It was the Republican party through its representatives in the legislature and in the United States express office which deliberately perpetuated that vicious system and made possible a recurrence of the evils

The contrast between Republican promises and Republican performances has been so marked and it is so fresh in the public mind that I am surprised the Saratoga convention had the effrontery to appeal again to public confidence The party promised reduced state expenditures and it increased state taxation nearly five million dollars it promised a reduction or abolition of state officers and commissions and the net results of its efforts in this direction was the creation of at least ten new commissioners some of them being likely to involve the state in considerable annual expense it promised a minimized tax rate and gave the people one at a rate fifty per cent higher than for the preceding year, it was strong in promises for municipal home rule and when in power recklessly violated the principle at every opportunity

The home rule provision in the new constitution was continually set at naught and bill after bill was repassed after being vetoed by the mayor of the city to which it applied.

Local legislation was enacted regardless of principle or wisdom but almost solely for grabbing political patronage Devotion to civil service reform was professed and the law was openly violated or quickly evaded Ballot reform was pledged but opportunity for bribing was made easier An acceptable excise law was promised and the present unsatisfactory law was continued in effect unmodified

Dozens of investigating committees were appointed to investigate state departments filled by Democrats but no extravagances or wrong doing was found Political bossism was generously denounced but the Republican legislature completely enslaved itself to Thomas C Platt and followed meekly his every word Charges of official corruption against members of the legislature were freely made and were so serious that committees were appointed to investigate them Scandal of this kind tainted the entire legislative system and the public interests were neglected for private plunder

"If it was not so notoriously true it would seem incomprehensible that a party could make so many good promises and so quickly ignore them It is more than presumption for such a party after such a record of faithlessness to dare once more to appeal for public support Into a campaign on these issues Mr Flower said, the Democracy is not backward about entering Upon the question whether the Republican or Democratic party can most safely be trusted with the management of public affairs in this state, Democrats he said, can appeal confidently and frankly to the people for a decision

"It was the Democratic party in their few years of power at Albany which gave the people the lowest tax rate they had enjoyed in thirty six years, which conceived and executed an elaborate system of indirect taxation relieving real estate of half its burden for the support of the government which established rigid safeguards about the expenditure of public money in state institutions, which so jealously guarded the public funds that not a dollar out of hundreds of millions was lost or stolen "

Mr Flower said he was proud that as a Democrat he could face such an audience and appeal to their earnestness and loyalty to work for the success of a party which has a record for faithfulness unsurpassed a record in such splendid contrast with that of the party now in power.

"Today" he added " the leaders of the Republican party are denounced by the conspicuous champions of good government clubs The committee of seventy in New York, the good government clubs, Dr Parkhurst, the Independent Press and the better elements everywhere of the Republican party declare without reserve that they have betrayed by their professed friends "

In conclusion the ex Governor said that every week's improvement in industry and commerce is a vindication of that Democratic statesmanship which placed the finances of the country on a sound basis by repealing the Sherman law and revived wrning industries by the enactment of the Wilson bill. To these two beneficial measures he thought every recent increase of wages, every recent advance in business, every recent sale of American securities in Europe, every recent opening of mills is distinctly due.

Other Business of Conventions

The resolution adopted by the committee on contested seats was as follows:

Tammany Hall is entitled to recognition in all future conventions as regular, and its delegates are to be placed upon the preliminary and other rolls thereof, and, in the appointment of inspectors of elections, the use of the party emblem and in every other way in which the question of party organization may arise, said Tammany Hall organization shall be recognized and seated at the regular organization of the party in New York county but in the interest of harmony at this time, the committee recommend subject to the aforesaid conditions, that the sitting delegates, as well as the delegates known as the State Democracy, be admitted to the convention with one-fifth of a vote to each state Democracy delegate and four-fifths of a vote to each Tammany Hall delegate.

The first ballot was to allow the contestants one-third representation. It was 22 to 27 against. Senator Hill voted in the negative.

The next ballot was to allow one-fifth; it was carried by a vote of 32 to 17, Senator Hill voted in the affirmative. The seventeen who voted no were Wm P Mitchell, Patrick Keenan, Wright Holcomb, Thos. F Gilroy, Thos J Martin, John C Sheehan, T. C O Sullivan Moritz Ellinger, Thos F Grady John D McIntire, John B Shea, Francis J Malloy John Kelly Wm B Kirk T D O Keefe, Mathew Merzig and Mathew Scanlon

It was 9 45 o'clock before the Grace-Fairchild Democrats got together at their headquarters Before the meeting Everett P Wheeler said he was for war What was the use he asked, of going into the convention under such terms They would practically have no voice The following resolution was introduced by Everett P Wheeler and was unanimously adopted

Whereas the New York State Democracy as organized in New York city is composed of Democrats and therefore opposed to the management and methods of the Tammany Hall organization and

Whereas, as such injustice and in conformity to Democratic principles and to many precedents in previous years the state Democracy is entitled to representation in the state convention and on the state committee and whereas the resolution adopted by the committee on contested seats gives neither but in effect only allows a certain number of delegates from the state Democracy to sit by courtesy in this convention it is

Resolved that we decline to accept the terms offered by said committee

Resolved that we declare the terms on which alone we can accept admission to the convention must include recognition of our right as an organization of loyal Democrats to be represented in the councils of the party The meeting then adjourned

The Platform Adopted

The Democratic party of New York in convention assembled makes the following declarations of its principles and policy

1—Home Rule the first essential condition of good municipal government local jurisdiction and control over purely local affairs no legislative medling

2—Economy in public expenses no public money for private purposes or political jobs strict audit of official expenditures a low tax rate

3—Honesty in public office no tainted legislators no corrupt traffic in legislation clean men and free agents no hypocrites

4—Equal and honest enforcement of all the laws a proper observance of a day of rest and an orderly Sunday modification or repeal of laws unsupported by public opinion no unjust sumptuary laws no blue laws recognition of the fundamental American principle of freedom of conscience Home rule in excise as in other matters within reasonable limitations established to protect the interests of temperance and morality and an amendment of the excise and other laws by the legislature of the state which shall permit each municipality expressing its sentiments by popular vote of a majority of its citizens to determine within such proper legislative restrictions as will be in the interests of the entire state what may be required by its necessities and conditions

5—The attempts of prominent Republican politicians in the large cities of the state in repudiating their own platform are renewed evidence of their hypocrisy and dishonesty in the excise question and fitted only to deceive the people

6—Equal taxation no unjust discrimination no favored interests no partial legislation

7—Individual liberty the right of all citizens to equal opportunities before the law equal and exact justice to all men

8—Honest elections compulsory official accounting of expenditures by political committees as well as candidates personal registration of voters as a safeguard against fraud

9—Practical and honest reform in the civil service

10—Intelligent and liberal promotion of agriculture

11—Improved highways of travel the improvement of the state in the interest of our citizens and particularly of the farmers and travellers

12—Penitential legislation in interests of labor

PRICELESS COINS

The Fifth Annual Convention of the American Numismatic Association at Washington

Friday's session of the fifth annual convention of the American Numismatic Association at Washington was devoted to executive business The old officers of the association were unanimously re-elected Coins of almost priceless value were afterward displayed. As viewed from a numismatic standpoint, it is the condition of a coin which fixes its value It is not the date or age, except in less than thirty instances, that is sought for at big quoted premiums Pierced, plugged, badly worn, scratched coins or those on which the dates are illegible, have no particular value A perfectly uncirculated cent of 1799 would easily bring $100, whereas a good cent of the same date can be purchased for $10

For gold there is but a limited numismatic demand, and the supply is greatly in excess of that demand The double eagle of 1849 is worth about $300 All gold dollars are at a premium and worth from $1 20 to $1 40 each Those dated 1863, 1864 and 1865 command from $2 50 to $4 each, and 1875 $8

The bulk of numismatic transactions is in silver coins A dollar of 1804 is worth $400; a half dollar of 1797 brings $40 and a quarter of 1827 demands $40 The dime of 1804 is the most valuable, being worth $10 and a half dime of 1802 easily holds the record at $63 A large copper cent of 1799 would bring $25, and a half cent of 1796 is in demand at $60 The thin silver half dime of 1802 was bought by its present holder for $63 and has sold for $75

The twenty-first annual convention of the Maine Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Houlton, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week with special religious services on Sunday. The convention proper is to be held in the First Baptist church with the use of the neighboring Methodist church for overflow meetings No State convention of the W. C. T U has ever been held in Aroostook county, and the people in this section of the State as well as the residents of Houlton, are looking forward to the event with interest.

The best is what you want when you are in need of a medicine. That is why you should insist upon Hood's Sarsaparilla. 8

WHY NOT YOU?

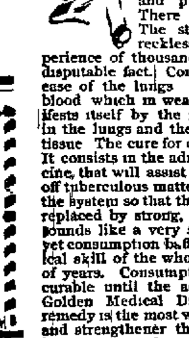

When thousands of people are taking Hood's Sarsaparilla to overcome the weakness and languor which are so common at this season, why are you not doing the same? When you know that Hood's Sarsaparilla has power to cure rheumatism, dyspepsia, and all diseases caused by impure blood, why do you continue to suffer? Hood's cures others, why not you?

Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient. 5c

"She wrote in a handwriting clerky,
She talked with an emphatic jerky,
She painted on tiles, in the sweetest of styles,
But she didn't know chicken from turkey."

But she knew Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to be the very best remedy for a sallow and unhealthy complexion. It brightens the skin by acting on the liver and removing all the bilious or scrofulous poison from the blood. Sure cure also for consumption, in its early stages.

sep23 MThsw

An important message often comes by telegraph, but the most important message that ever was delivered to mankind has been given to them through the newspapers. It is given again in this article.

It is the information that 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption can be completely and permanently cured. There is no doubt about it. The statement is not made recklessly but after the experience of thousands has made it an indisputable fact. Consumption is not a disease of the lungs It is a disease of the blood which in weak lunged people manifests itself by the formation of tubercles in the lungs and the wasting away of lung tissue The cure for consumption is simple It consists in the administration of a medicine, that will assist the lungs in throwing off tuberculous matter and that will cleanse the system so that this refuse matter will be replaced by strong, healthy tissues That sounds like a very simple operation, and yet consumption baffled the combined medical skill of the whole world for hundreds of years. Consumption was considered incurable until the advent of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery This great remedy is the most wonderful blood purifier and strengthener that the world has ever known It is the result of years of study and experiment, by a scientific physician and has been tested in every way by him for over 30 years. It has an unbroken record of success It cures a great variety of diseases, because almost all diseases have their origin and support in impurity and weakness of the blood As long as a man's blood is rich and pure, he is in no danger from diseases. The blood is the medium through which food is carried from the digestive system to all of the tissues of the body If it carries impure things, or an insufficient quantity of good things, trouble will ensue. There is nothing about that so very hard to understand It is perfectly plain and natural and rational. The "Golden Medical Discovery" puts the digestive system in perfect order, purifies and enriches the blood and so puts the whole body into perfect tune

In the case of the hotel the fine was promptly paid while the other parties appealed

Colby has secured a coach for the foot ball team in the person of Mr Charles D Clark, of Tufts College Mr Clark was a member of the crack team of that college in the fall of 1892 and played quarter back Since graduating from college he has gained an enviable reputation as a coach Last season he coached the University of Mississippi eleven successfully. Mr Clark will arrive and commence training on the campus Monday next Meanwhile the team under Captain Brooks is working hard every day and will be in prime condition for the coach when he arrives. Captain Brooks has shown himself fully capable of handling the team which will no doubt do credit to the college which it represents.

"It was easy to see," says the Washington Star, speaking of the opening address of ex-President Whitman of Colby, as president of Columbian University, "that he made a pleasing impression upon the young ladies and gentlemen who were present the moment he stepped forward and began to speak. His tall, erect and commanding figure, his particularly pleasant and attractive face, his easy and graceful manner and his full, deep, rich and resonant voice that now dwelt with emphasis upon the serious side of the student's life and duty, and again grew genial with fun and humor, all combined to make a personality that could not fail to be magnetic. His youthful auditors looked at him with evident approval and satisfaction, and it was easy to see that they felt instinctively that their new president was a man in whom they could place implicit trust and confidence, to whom they could turn when in difficulty without hesitation and be assured that he would find a way to help them out, and who would, in a word, be a friend to each as well as the careful director and guardian of them all."

WHO IS TO BLAME?

Is It Not a Case of Guilty Neglect?

A Terrible Responsibility Rests With Somebody

A Serious Question to a Great Many, and a Sad One.

Who is to blame?

Surely someone is to blame for the enormous amount of sickness and suffering in the world Too often people are prone to throw the responsibility for their condition upon some higher power In nine cases out of ten this is wrong for in most cases the blame lies entirely with the sufferer

It has been shown by constantly demonstrated fact, proven by the experience of thousands upon thousands of people that most of the difficulties and diseases from which people suffer are easily and readily cured by the use of Dr Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy which is, without doubt, the greatest medical discovery of modern times It is sure to cure disease

Mrs Wm M Strong who lives in Waitsfield Vt says

About ten years ago I had a very severe attack of typhoid fever which left one side of my body in a very bad condition One limb swelled badly and every time I bore my weight on that limb it seemed as though my hip would uujoint The pain was dreadful and I have never been free from that pain during all these years

MRS WM M STRONG

About a year ago the trouble took a different form going into my arm also My arm pained me terribly and when I attempted to lift anything with that hand my fingers would let go and it would not grip anything I had no strength in that arm

This condition of my arm and limb both on the same side continued up to about six months ago My head troubled me very bad If anything came up on me suddenly a fluttering in it came over me starting from the top of my head and for a short time I was entirely lost as though I was entirely gone

The same awful feeling would commence if I got very tired or if many were talking at once I do not know exactly how to describe my sensations in my head in words but it was dreadful and I suffered very much Seemed to me as though something gave way in my head and I was gone

I certainly felt a good deal alarmed about my condition and I could not have lasted a great while longer if I had not found help

I consulted and employed many doctors who said there was no help for me as it was the result of the typhoid fever and did not so much as relieve the pain My sister informed me of Dr Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and advised me to try it saying that it had helped her greatly

"The results are that after three bottles the pain is all gone from my limbs and the pain and deathly feeling in my head is relieved I am able to comfortably do the work in my family for five and six all the time.

"I do most heartily recommend Dr Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to any one suffering as I was

If our readers will take example from this case—and such cases are constantly being reported in the newspapers—much of the sickness and suffering which renders life a burden will be removed It is a fact that Dr Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy does cure

It is not a patent medicine but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases Dr Greene of 34 Temple Place Boston, Mass He has the largest practice in the world and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience The great reputation of Dr Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure and the fact that he can be consulted by any one at any time free of charge, personally or by letter gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine

City Hall the Scene of the Wildest Excitement.

Dr. Damon Heals the Sick Without Money or Price

And Hundreds Witness His Marvelous Work

The lecture and healing clinic given by that noted specialist Dr S J Damon, at City Hall yesterday afternoon was a surprise in every way The large audience soon found they were in the presence of a most remarkable man, and we venture to say a more pleased and a more mystified audience never left the hall than the one drawn there to see and hear the Man of Miracles Many undoubtedly went there out of mere curiosity, but it is a fact they came away firm believers in this new science that has made this man famous all over the world Never before in the history of man have such marvelous cures been performed and yet to all appearances they are performed with the greatest of ease, both by the genial doctor and his able associate After the lecture case after case was called up until some twenty or more were relieved of all suffering A man who had suffered eight years with rheumatism was cured so quickly that he was frightened and he actually cried for joy

Several cases of deafness were quickly restored while lame shoulders and legs too numerous to mention, were cured almost instantly One old lady with hands drawn out of shape by rheumatism, was restored in a few moments By this time the audience had realized that a miracle had been performed before their very eyes and they showed their appreciation by a hearty applause These free lectures and clinics will be continued every afternoon at 2 30 for a short time only and everybody is invited to attend free of all cost Those who are interested in this grand work or those wishing private consultation with Dr Damon will be cordially received at his reception parlors Bangor House at such time as he is not at the hall The public are invited to bring those of their own choice to the hall for treatment, and each will be attended to in turn

Dr Damon is a graduate of two schools of medicine, member of the Medical Society of Washington, also a member of the Board of Censors of the District of Columbia He also has the highest endorsement from members of Congress Senators and their families, also several members of Foreign Legations Last March the Board of Managers of the University of Science conferred the degree of the White Cross Legion of Honor with gold medal upon Dr Damon for his discoveries as a proficiency in Magnetic Therapeutics This being the highest honorary degree of this university naturally the doctor feels very proud of his certificates

No one should miss these lectures as they are not only interesting but wonderfully instructive The worthy poor are treated free after each lecture

FOREST FIRES

Raging in the Region North of Bangor.

Much Damage Being Done by the Flames.

Forest fires are raging in a number of places north of this city and the air for miles around is full of smoke The extreme dryness is the cause, as a fire will start from the most incipient source and unless there is rain immediately many more fires will be heard from

Wednesday a fire began in the woods two miles below Norcross along the line of the Bangor & Aroostook railroad A freight train went through it but when the passenger train which arrived in this city last evening reached that point the train had to be stopped while the train men fought the fire that the cars might go through in safety It was delayed a short time

The fire burnt a lot of cedar posts piled along the railroad for a mile and a half and then ran into the bark woods of Albert Gilman, of Veazie, burning 500 cords of bark and a quantity of hemlock logs in two yards belonging to him Eighty tons of hay which he had stored across from the depot at Andrew's siding was also burned

At a point north of Katahdin Iron Works, a big fire was in progress Wednesday It broke out about noon Tuesday on the eastern side of B Pond about half a mile above the dam on which a crew of twenty one men had been at work under the charge of Martin Laughlin, of Bangor, who was preparing for some lumbering operations on those waters this season The men were at dinner when they first saw the flames and started for the scene to attempt to extinguish the fire but five minutes later were flying for their lives

Three of them reached the road leading to the Iron Works and ran along the rough pathway occasionally stopping to glance behind them and see the dense smoke rolling into the air and then hasten on

The other men took to the lakes as did many animals of the game species, which leaped into the water to escape the flames As the fire burned with great rapidity many of the animals must have lost their lives It is not known what caused the fire

The heavy wind which has been helping the fire along had subsided yesterday The heavy smoke hangs over the Iron Works country obscuring all the mountains

Laughlin's crew lost tools, supplies and in fact everything except the clothes worn by the men It is reported that the dam on which they had been working for some weeks was destroyed by the flames

Foot Ball Notes

An advisory committee has been chosen to aid Manager Hennessey of the High School team, in the affairs relating to the games this fall The principal members are Principal H K White, of the High School, Mr R A Jordan Mr H I Fairbanks and Mr M S Clifford

Manager Hennessey has received a letter from the manager of the Maine State College eleven, asking for a game at Orono next Wednesday He has also received communications from the Bowdoin freshmen, Hebron and Foxcroft academies for games which will be arranged Two games will be played with the Bowdoin freshmen, one here and the other in Brunswick

The High School team will be definitely decided upon by to-day or to-morrow The first game of the fall will be played with Waterville High School at Maplewood Park next Saturday afternoon and a large number will probably attend as the game promises to be a well contested one

The foot ball game, to have been played between the Hebron eleven and that of the Bath High School at Lewiston next Saturday, is cancelled owing to the refusal of Bath to play In place of this game one is arranged with Bridgton Academy at the Norway Fair Grounds next Saturday A good game is expected This fall the Hebron team is stronger than in former fall terms

Musical Club Talked Of

Mr C J Marshall, the well known singing teacher and leader of the Central church choir, is talking with many of the Bangor singers regarding the formation the coming winter of a singing club, which he will lead if the plan is carried out His idea is for the club to meet once a week and sing part songs or short works and give one or more concerts during the winter

As there is much interest in music in Bangor and as there would be no expense for a conductor it would seem as though the club as proposed would be a success There will be further consultation with musical people and if the plan meets with general approval a meeting will be called for the purpose of organizing Mr Marshall is well fitted to conduct the club

Suggestions to Hunters and Woodsmen

A prominent land owner of this city yesterday suggested to a WHIG reporter that the attention of hunters be called to the fact that as the woods are very dry at present they take great care in shooting Patent gun wads will do no damage, but cotton wadding, cloth, etc, will light on dry grass or twigs They, as well as woodsmen, should also be very careful during the absence of rain, in the building of fires and in smoking They should see to it that every camp or cook fire is thoroughly extinguished before leaving it and matches or pipe ashes should not be thrown into dry grass Care in these respects will prevent many big forest fires

Municipal Court

In the Municipal Court yesterday a case against Fred W. Kyle, a hostler, formerly of Mattawamkeag, charged with defrauding the rug manufacturing firm of J. J. Rounds & Co., of Boston, to the amount of $18, was tried The company has had an agent named Allen Barrows alias Hale, selling rugs in this vicinity, and Kyle claims that Barrows came to him and saying that he was short of funds, asked him to sign a lease for three rugs in order that he could get his commission.

He says that he unthinkingly signed it without looking at it and soon found that he was charged with the rugs which he had no idea he had taken.

The result of the hearing was that he was ordered to pay the costs amounting to some $7, which was paid by his friends.

Christopher Burke for drunkenness was given 30 days in jail but was bailed out. Immediately after his release he was again taken into custody on a bench warrant and got another sentence of 30 days.

"The Two Orphans"

D'Ennery's great masterpiece of dramatic interest will be presented at the Opera House Monday September 30th Years ago when first produced in this country it created the greatest interest Many companies were formed and hundreds of actors found long engagements in its interpretation The story of the two sisters, one blind and helpless the other young and beautiful, was illustrated with such a sympathetic touch of art that it appealed to all The lower grades of society were given with life like force the sorrows and temptations of all classes were equally well pictured, in the prison and the home of nobility The situations are thrilling the abduction of the elder daughter the fate of the poor blind girl compelled to sing and beg in the open streets, the cruelty of Frochard the poor cripple Pierre, the handsome Jacques, all are types of Parisian life

Enjoyable Autumnal Outing

An Orono correspondent writes The annual autumnal outing of the "Whittier Club" of Orono an association of a few of the married ladies of the town—none unmarried need apply—transpired Tuesday last taking the form of a buckboard ride, for all who could leave home, along the bank of the Stillwater river via the village of that name and the famous "horse back" to the objective point Pine Grove in Alton, a charming drive of about two hours The peculiar formation of this high ridge along which the road extended for several miles, attracted the studious attention of the party and many were the conjectures as to its formation but the geologists concluded it to be a lateral moraine, a "left over" relic of the ice period of thousands of years ago The autumn leaves with all their brilliant colorings contrasting with the various hues of the forests as shown in the different wood composing them were a source of continual pleasure and delight

Arrived at the Grove a cosy nook under the shadow of the mighty evergreens formed as if by nature for the purpose served as a fitting place for the spread and was quickly put in order and covered from the contents of the lunch baskets much to the gratification of all whose appetites stimulated by the cool breezes and balsam odors needed to be appeased Hot water was procured from a not far distant farm house as no lady would dare build a fire on the grounds in these dry times and the coffee made at once Dinner was soon sounded by those in charge and the party fell to with a relish And such appetites But we are unwilling to be invidious so we tell no tales out of school There was enough and to spare The meeting used some needed items of business were attended to and the remaining time given over to fun and enjoyment

They were no college graduating class and there was no formal historian but somehow it appeared that the average age of the party was 33 the average weight [illegible] the average height 5 feet 3 the average boot [illegible] and the average complexion just what the sunshine and the winds could make it As the sun began to near the horizon the driver shouted "all aboard" and [illegible] ing corn, the golden pumpkins and the laden fruit trees of the [illegible] the roadside were left behind and home reached by the main route all [illegible] a famous victory
